

Tarot & Archetypes for Shadow Work

Part 1: Essential Books on Tarot, Archetypes, and Psychology

These books offer deep insights into how tarot connects with the unconscious, myth, and personal transformation:

On Jungian Psychology & Archetypes

- The Archetypes and The Collective Unconscious – Carl Jung
- Man and His Symbols – Carl Jung
- Owning Your Own Shadow: Understanding the Dark Side of the Psyche – Robert A. Johnson

On Tarot & Symbolism

- Jung and Tarot: An Archetypal Journey – Sallie Nichols
- Tarot and Psychology: Spectrums of Possibility – Arthur Rosengarten
- The Tarot Handbook – Angeles Arrien

On Myth, Narrative, and Personal Transformation

- The Hero with a Thousand Faces – Joseph Campbell
- Women Who Run with the Wolves – Clarissa Pinkola Estés
- The Power of Myth – Joseph Campbell & Bill Moyers

Part 2: Tarot Exercises for Archetypal Shadow Work

1. The Archetype Reflection Spread

A 3-card spread to explore an unconscious pattern shaping your life.

1. Which archetype currently influences my shadow? (A card representing a hidden belief, wound, or fear)
2. How is this archetype playing out in my life? (Where it shows up, how it affects choices or emotions)
3. How can I integrate and balance this archetype? (A way to work with it rather than reject it)

Example: If you pull The High Priestess (reversed), your shadow might involve fear of intuition, self-trust, or passivity. Integration could mean actively listening to your instincts, keeping a dream journal, or exploring what keeps you disconnected from your inner wisdom.

2. The Hero's Journey Spread

This 5-card spread helps you uncover where you are in your personal myth and what's needed for growth.

1. Where am I on my journey? (Current life stage or challenge)
2. What past wound or belief is shaping my path? (What needs healing?)
3. What strengths or allies can support me? (Inner or outer resources available)
4. What challenge must I face? (A shadow aspect or obstacle to overcome)
5. What transformation awaits? (The new version of yourself emerging)

Example: If your challenge (Card 4) is The Devil, you may need to confront attachments, unhealthy patterns, or inner resistance before transformation.

3. Rewriting Your Story: Tarot & Journaling Exercise

1. Write down a belief or story about yourself that feels limiting (e.g., "I am not creative," "I always fail," "I am not worthy of love").
  2. Pull a tarot card – What energy does this card reveal about the belief?
  3. Write an alternative, empowering version of the story (inspired by the card's meaning).
  4. Reflect: How can you embody this new story in daily life?
